ICN Business School renews its AACSB accreditation for the maximum duration of 6 years

Following an audit conducted in March 2025, the American organization AACSB (Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business) has renewed its accreditation of ICN Business School for a period of 6 years – the maximum possible duration. This decision highlights the school's commitment and academic excellence, as it continues to rank among the 1% of business schools worldwide holding the prestigious triple crown accreditation (AACSB, EQUIS, AMBA).

"We are proud to have our AACSB accreditation renewed for another six years. This significant achievement is a powerful endorsement of the quality and rigor of our academic programs, the dedication and expertise of our faculty and staff, and the invaluable support from our community and partners. It demonstrates our ongoing commitment to continuous improvement and excellence in business education. ICN provides its students with the best possible learning experience to prepare them for success in a fast-changing global environment. This renewal not only reaffirms our standing among leading business schools but also motivates us to keep pushing forward, promoting innovation and strengthening our impact on both our students and the wider community" – Kushal SHARMA, quality and accreditations director.
